Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in. Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of 75 per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cts. Try it.

Merit Will Tell.

Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Abietine Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the late California State Fair at Sacramento and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. W. P. Piniger is agent for these celebrated "Abietine Remedies" and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer is on each, as none are genuine without it.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all coughs and colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's Drug Store.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and healed. Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25 cents per box by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co's."

$5,000 Reward—$5,000.

For a better or more pleasant remedy for the cure of consumption, bronchitis, cough, croup and whooping cough than Santa Abie, the California king of consumption. Every bottle warranted. If you would be cured of that disgusting disease, catarrh, use CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE, $1 a jar; by mail $1.10. Santa Abie and Cat-R-Cure are sold and warranted by Osburn & Shoemaker wholesale and retail agents, Reno, Nev.

An Old Crime Punished.

Last Wednesday A. P. Church, charged with the murder of William Baxter, of the Coso House, San Francisco, nine years ago, was convicted of manslaughter. Church is a printer who was well known on the Comstock. He worked in several offices here in the early days. He was sent to the Insane Asylum at Stockton at the time of the killing, and was only released from that institution about two months ago as cured. He was again at once arrested and placed on trial for the old crime. The story of the killing is as follows: About nine years ago Church applied at the Coso House, on Sansome street, one evening, for lodging. The clerk, a man named Wm. Baxter, refused to accommodate him, on the ground that he already owned the house a bill of exchange somewhat intoxicated at the time, but after abusing Baxter for a while, left. Later, he returned, and asked for a pair of boots he had left in a room occupied the night before. Baxter accompanied him up stairs, when the altercation was renewed, and Church concluded by stabbing Baxter, who died three days after from the wound inflicted. Some of the Comstock printers believe Church still insane.

A Streak of Accidents.

It has long been observed on the Comstock that accidents run in streaks. In the last day or two, says the Enterprise, we appear to have got into one of the old-time streaks. There have been times here when these streaks of accidents, particularly in mines, would last ten days or two weeks, many men being killed or seriously injured. "Look out now," would then be the word among the miners—"look out, for we have got into one of our bad streaks."

A Sea-Sick Passenger.

On the ocean every little about a storm. He is positively indifferent whether he is washed overboard or not. But, set right by a wineglassful or two of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, he feels renewed interest in his personal safety. This fine curative neutralizes in brackish water—often compulsion drunk on shipboard—to the previous detriment of health—the pernicious impurities which give rise to disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. To the mariner, the tourist, the Western pioneer and miner, the Bitters is invaluable as a means of protection against malaria, when its seeds are latent in the air and water. To the effects of overwork, mental or manual, it is a most reliable antidote, and so the debilitated and nervous, it affords great and speedy relief and vigor.

Carson's Flying Ants.

Dan DeQuille, the eminent naturalist, says that the flying ants, about which the Carsonites have been growling of late, probably got their wings washed off them during Thursday's showers. It is only the female ants that are furnished with wings. Their wings suffice for a flight of an hour or two, when they come off and the ants fall to the ground establishing new colonies wherever they happen to land.

SATURDAY MAY 21, 1887

[It is intimated that during Blaine's trip to Europe that he will place himself prominently on record as the friend of Ireland. Whatever interest Mr. Blaine will take in Irish affairs will simply be that which actuates every liberty-loving American, and nothing more. It is a ridiculous idea to suppose that a statesman of Mr. Blaine's ability should so far forget himself while on a friendly visit to a foreign land as to make himself conspicuous in European politics, that do not concern him a particle; at least, not more than others who watch the politics of the world in order to understand and profit by the information thus unfolded. Whatever sympathy may be felt in this country for Ireland, it is not so great that public opinion would endorse the action of a public man like Mr. Blaine who would entwine himself in the meshes of English politics in order to gain the political support of the Irish faction in the United States. Such a move on the part of Mr. Blaine would ruin his political prospects in America forever. No one realizes this fact more keenly than he himself. There is no doubt but that Mr. Blaine will make himself familiar with the political situation in that island, and will return home with a clear and intelligent understanding of the differences existing between the Irish and English people; but he will not make a fool of himself while gleaming his information. Americans have a high appreciation for an advocate of liberty, but there is a limit to his sway. So long as he is actuated by pure and manly motives, and not moved by personal ambition, that appreciation will last. But when he leaves his native land to dabble in foreign politics, merely for the sake of advancing his own interests, politically, at home, he will find that even liberty-loving Americans can condemn. Mr. Blaine has enough to do at home, without adding to his burden by undertaking the responsibility of adjusting the many complications that exist in European politics. Even the idea of such a move on the part of the Maine statesman is preposterous, and is not to be entertained for a moment. When Mr. Blaine desires to speak on the Irish question, he will do so at home, under his own flag, and not in Europe.

Perhaps there may be surprises in preparation in the Presidential game. People will certainly be surprised if when the Democratic Convention meets Cleveland is not a candidate, and yet more surprised when the Republican Convention is held if Blaine is not a candidate. These men are so definitely fixed in the popular mind as necessary candidates that the people at large have not even weighed what could be done without them. It is not impossible that Blaine's many disappointments may have sickened him of his great ambition. For sixteen years he has been a candidate, and he always made a superb fight. He yielded to Grant with good grace. He was put aside for such a poor venture as Hayes. He was tripped up for Garfield—and, a candidate at last, was beaten by Cleveland. As he has not got the bite of a rhinoceros, this might well be enough for him and he may reasonably feel that it all makes him very tired.

TO-DAY'S NEWS.

Reports From the Mexican Earthquakes.

GILMORE KNOCKED OUT.

A Warm Reception for O'Brien at Kingston.

MICHIGAN FOREST FIRES.

Small Pox in the Harbor of San Francisco.

(FROM DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE)

A Terrible State of Affairs in Michigan.

MARQUETTE, Mich., May 21. The fire at Lake Linden is now under control. The flames were first noticed issuing from the second story of Numan & Irelson's general merchandise store. Everything was as dry as tinder, and despite the heroic efforts of the firemen and citizens, the spread was very rapid. In less than two hours after the first alarm, the entire business portion of the town from the starting point of the fire to the public school house building was in ashes. Every saloon but one and every stone structure except that occupied by Weber & Co. as a meat market, was destroyed. The loss is a terrible one to Lake Linden, and conservative judges place the pecuniary damage at one and one-half million dollars. The insurance is probably not less than three-quarters of a million. They report a great loss of household goods and surplus clothing, the flames reaching out with such rapidity, that house-holders quickly realized that their only safety was in instant flight.

A panic seized everyone. The fire department was fifteen minutes in reaching the fire after it had broken out, and then was helpless, the flames having made such headway that no agency of men could be of any avail. Had the fire broken out at night hundreds of lives would have been lost. Words fail to picture the awful speed with which the flames swept through the doomed town, and families rushing from their homes to the street, saving only the clothing on their backs. Hundreds of families are homeless to-night, without bedding or clothing, except what they have on. No stores are left to furnish supplies and Hancock & Houghton, merchants, are sending mattresses and bedding to the homeless people. Everything was as dry as tinder from the long drought, and even solid brick blocks melted away before the furious flames like snow. The flames swept clean to the lake from the school house, a half-mile, and three or four blocks wide. A rough estimate of the losses is not possible at this hour, the excitement making it hard to get at the real facts. The losses on stores alone, foot up to about $500,000.

LATER—Specials from various points in the upper peninsula of Michigan say: Crystal Falls, a small mining town, is in imminent danger of destruction from forest fires. Iron Mountain, Quinnesic and Norway are now out of danger. Baraga and L'Anse are still in danger, but both places have got good fire protection. The destruction of cord wood, ties and standing pine is estimated at $3,500,000. The Southern Peninsula is also suffering from fires. In the neighborhood of Cheboygan, fires are causing considerable destruction, and in Clare county several million feet of timber have been destroyed.

Gold and Silver.

WASHINGTON, May 20. The report of the Director of the Mint on the production of precious metals in the United States for the calendar year 1886 is in press, and will soon be ready for distribution. The Director estimates the production of the United States to have been in 1886: Gold, $35,000,000; silver, $51,000,000. The value of silver in the above estimate is calculated at the coining rate of silver in the United States—the silver dollar, namely, $1.2929 per ounce, fine. The production of silver was 30,445,312 fine ounces; commercial value, at average price of silver during the year, namely, about $1 per fine ounce, $30,445,312. The production of gold shows an increase over the prior year of $3,200,000. The production of silver is slightly less than in 1885.

The tabular statement shows that the production of silver in the United States has largely increased from 1880, when it was $39,200,000, to $51,000,000 in 1886.

Colorado claims the first rank as the largest producer of the precious metals in the United States, the value of its production of gold and silver having been over $20,000,000 during the past year. California yields second place to Montana, with a production of nearly $10,000,000, against $16,000,000 for the former.

The production of Nevada and New Mexico has decreased, while that of the other States has remained almost constant. Texas for the first time is added to the list of producing States, with a production of $200,000 in silver. The annual supply of silver from the mines of the world has largely increased in the last four years.

Saturday Holiday in New York.

NEW YORK, May 21. The Saturday half-holiday was generally complied with to-day. This afternoon there was a general cessation of business, and down town streets had a Sunday appearance. Exchanges, courts and city and county offices were closed promptly at noon.

The Kate Castleton Troupe Disbands.

DENVER, May 21. The Kate Castleton troupe disbanded here to-day. Kate Castleton and husband goes to San Francisco. The remainder of the company will return to New York to-morrow with the remains of Kate Leslie, who was killed in the accident at Salida yesterday morning.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

O'Brien's Reception at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Ontario, May 20. Editor O'Brien and party reached here and were driven to the Burnett House, where a crowd assembled and cheered him. Arriving at the skating rink, where the meeting was to be held, crowds of O'Brien's sympathizers were found gathered around the building. Police, armed with revolvers, moved up and down, and forbade anybody to block up the entrance to the hall.

O'Brien in his opening remarks said: "My mission is not to stir up strife, but to blend the orange and the green." This sentiment at once won over the descendants of the Ulster farmers. They cheered as heartily as anybody else. Trouble was brewing, and at the conclusion of the meeting the chairman told the audience to go home peacefully. Then the people started out, O'Brien being in the rear. Thinking this would be too dangerous, O'Brien's friends hurried him to the front. He stepped on the sidewalk, wearing, as usual, a tall hat. The moment the Orangemen on the opposite side of the street saw him they raised savage yells, and cried: "There he is," and rushed across the street. Cobble stones and bricks began flying like hail; women screamed and general confusion reigned. O'Brien and his friends buried their heads, but received the missiles on the body. At length O'Brien disappeared through an alley, and was lost to the crowd. The mob rushed to the Burnett House, thinking O'Brien was there, shouting, "To hell with home rule. Kill him." Nobody knew where O'Brien was, but he was soon discovered. Peter Devlin, who lives on the corner of Washington and William streets, stole down to Chief of Police Horsey and said: "O'Brien is safe with me." Chief Horsey, with Mayor Carson and six policemen, then went to Devlin's house and brought O'Brien to the Burnett House.

"I will protect you to the hotel," said Mayor Carson; "I will call out the artillery." "You will," exclaimed O'Brien sarcastically; "I don't want your protection now. You saw a mob of demons, 500 strong, outside that hall, thirsting for my blood, while I was addressing a peaceable meeting, and you didn't disperse them. Where was your artillery then, sir? Lansdowne and Howland winked at the efforts to murder me in Toronto, and now Lansdowne and you wink at the efforts to murder me here. I am not going to give you the credit of having protected my life, when you could have had it if you wished, but didn't." The Mayor said no more.

Reports from the Mexican Earthquakes.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 21. Reports from the local officials in the regions recently visited by earthquake shocks were received to-day, saying that the earthquake did not leave a single habitable house standing at Baptes. Sixty persons were killed and many wounded beyond hope of recovery. Between 3 P. M. and 1 A. M. of the day following there were eighteen shocks. Bodies are still being dug out, and it is thought the number killed will reach 150. A letter from Janos declares the existence of an extensive volcano, and says the smoke is so dense that it cuts off the sun's rays. Many testify that when the earthquake occurred they saw large boulders shoot up into the air and that flames burst forth from the summit of the mountain, setting fire to the forest.

Gilmore Knocked Out.

MONTREAL, May 21. Notwithstanding the threats of the police, Gilmore and Hawkins met at Back river at 2 o'clock this morning in the presence of a few spectators. After a hard fight, which lasted nearly two hours, Gilmore was completely knocked out.

BERLIN, May 21. Two Subalterns have been arrested at Strasburg, on the charge of high treason. They have made confessions implicating several other officials.

WESTERN DISPATCHES

A Shipwrecked Crew Safe.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21. Advice by the steamer Gaelic, which arrived this morning from China and Japan, state that a dispatch has been received by C. R. Great-house, U. S. Consul General at Yokohama from Hakodate, stating that 29 of the crew of the American whaler, Europa, wrecked off the Japan coast, not including the Captain, arrived at Nemuro. The entire crew numbered thirty-four.

Perfectly Satisfied at Present.

LOS ANGELES, May 21. The report that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe was to build up the coast to San Francisco is denied by H. B. Wilkins and Williamson Dunn, and prominent officials of the Santa Fe road, who state that the company is satisfied with the present arrangement and will confine itself to Southern California for the present.

A Murder in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21. This morning about 2 o'clock a man, since identified as a sailor named Carl Schultman, was found lying on Jackson street, near Front. The man had been drinking, and was suffering from a small but deep wound in the left breast. The wound was apparently inflicted with a penknife. He was at first taken to the police station, but when the wound was discovered he was conveyed to the hospital, where he later died. Fred Rosenbohn, the barkeeper of the saloon kept by Mrs. Christensen at 114 Jackson street, has been arrested on suspicion. He admits leaving the man on the sidewalk, but denies that he inflicted the wound. Rosenbohn is 38 years of age, the murdered man being about eight years younger.

The California Fruit Crop.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20. Inquiry among some of the most prominent fruit merchants of this city regarding the prospective fruit crop resulted in obtaining the following information: The apricot and peach crop will be large; white cherries exceedingly light; plums and prunes not more than one-quarter of last year's crop; there has been an advance of 100 per cent. in the last fortnight; the walnut and almond crop bids fair to be large, while the grape crop will be fully one-third short.

Smallpox on the Steamer Gaelic.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20. The Steamer Gaelic, from China and Japan, arrived this morning with the smallpox on board. She is now coming into the harbor. No particulars are yet obtainable. Before the vessel came to anchor she was boarded by a quarantine officer, who, on investigation, found two cases of smallpox among the Chinese passengers aboard. She was at once placed in quarantine. There are 1,200 Chinese passengers.

The Silver Market.

In its review of the silver market, Bradstreet's of the 14th inst. says: "The Loudon silver market during the past week has been exceedingly quiet and inactive, with little change in the quotation for bars, which has remained pretty steadily in the neighborhood of 43 1/2 per ounce. A steady though dull demand is reported, and India exchange is without features, the allotments of council bills on Wednesday having been made without change from the figures of last week. On the whole the impression among dealers is that the price of silver is likely to remain steady for a time."

LOCAL NEWS.

Happenings of the Day in Reno and Vicinity.

St. Mary's Academy.
A friend of the GAZETTE has been visiting the above named institution, and is pleased to state that the faculty and pupils are all in the enjoyment of good health. The annual examination of studies in the Senior and Junior classes terminated on the 13th inst. The mental inquest was thorough and very trying, but the four young ladies aspirants for graduating honors passed bravely through the ordeal and came out successful. Of the under-graduates, nine out of eleven are feeling happy at the prospect of "half-holidays." The intermediate and primary classes will be examined orally towards the end of the term. Such a good showing on the part of the leading classes merited a recess, which was given last Saturday, by accepting an invitation from Mr. James Sullivan to the Sisters and pupils to a grand dinner at his ranch. The day was spent in uninterrupted enjoyment by the party of thirty-six, and many and sincere were the expressions of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Sullivan and his excellent family for their genial hospitality. The closing exercises of the Academy will take place about the last of June, and will, as usual, be of a superior order.

Ready to enlarge.

The extension of the Nevada and California Railroad is to be built so it can be changed from a three-foot to a standard gauge in one day's time. The cuts, banks and bridges will be all extra wide and heavy. The ties will be eight feet long instead of six, and the rails 35-pound steel, so if the business justifies, it can be made a part of the main overland roads at any time it connects with the Oregon Short Line or the Northern Pacific and give Western Nevada an outlet. There is no doubt at all about the means being abundant in the hands of the owners of the road, and Colonel Heriot, their General Manager and agent, is an enthusiastic advocate of a rapid extension until a connection is made.

Did Them Good.

The postal authorities have been stirring up the mail contractors and the result has been beneficial. Instead of allowing the mail to drag along as luck may happen, the railroad runs it on the first section with the baggage and express. This is usually on time, which gives Postmaster Hagerman a chance to get it ready for the northern valleys by the time the passengers arrive and are ready to leave.

Good Cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Evans entertained a large company of friends in a very elegant manner last evening at their residence. A game of progressive euchre provided quite exciting, and resulted in a tie between five ladies for one prize and two gentlemen for the other. Refreshments were served at midnight and the company found it hard to leave at 2 o'clock. The prizes were very elegant.

Committee Meeting To-night.

The General Managing Committee to make preparations for the coming Fourth are requested to meet at Nashy's store to-night. Important business will be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

A Square Challenge.

The Amateur baseball club of Carson issues a challenge to the Resolutes of Virginia City, or any other club in the State, to play them a match game for from $100 to $1,000 a side. This is rather a bold declaration, but there is good material in the Amateur club and they will furnish the money if they can find a taker. We would suggest that the Resolutes accept the challenge and battle for the championship in Reno on the 4th of July.

State Land Office.

During the week ending yesterday there were filed at the State Land Office, Carson, 14 applications for State lands, embracing 2,435.06 acres. The cash receipts were as follows: Payments on applications, $778 75; partial payments on contracts, $355 59; interest payments on contracts, $121 57; total, $1,255 91. One hundred and thirteen applicants for State land were notified to file non-mineral affidavits, covering 58,480 acres.

Keep It.

The Carson jail is now entirely deserted, but we would advise the city dads not to tear it down. Carson is a good moral town, but ever there, a good stout jail is an indispensable appurtenance. It is hardly reasonable to suppose that the present lull in the criminal business will be of eternal duration, and the jug may come in good play at any time.

Would Like to Try It.

An exchange says that "there are few men living who can combine business and pleasure, patriotism and publishing, oratory and advertising as cleverly as Mark Twain." There is quite a large number of people living who would like to go into the business if they could make money at it as cleverly as Mark Twain has.

PERSONAL.

W. E. F. Deal, of Virginia City, arrived in Reno last night.

W. C. Price, Superintendent of the Navajo mine at Tuscarora, departed for the Great East this morning.

Waiting for a Spread.

We often hear the expression in Reno, "If I knew which way the town would spread I would buy property in that direction." It is highly probable that if this view was generally entertained, the town would not grow in any direction very fast. There is no instance on record of a town spreading out of its own free will, and unencouraged by people. If Reno does it, it will be an entirely new feature in city advancement. If we understand the case, towns are generally forced by residents in this or that direction. No one knows which way Reno will spread, and never will know unless some action is taken in the matter. If everybody who intends to build or purchase property in our city would wait until the "spread" took place, the chances are that they would linger for a long time without realizing their expectations. If Reno is to be built up and any particular portion of the town sought after, these very men who are waiting for this state of affairs are the very ones to bring it about. The purchases they would make would produce the result they want. Buy property in any locality and improve it. Talk up your neighborhood and influence, by your own acts, others to assist you in the matter. The erection of a few handsome residences will quickly determine which way those who desire to make permanent homes here, will look. They will be the magnet that will attract. They will say to the new comer, "This is the way the town will come, and this is where you must build your home." This is the view to take of the matter and the only way to solve the problem. Some one will take hold of this proposition, and when they do, they will make those pay dearly for a foothold who have waited for them to do it. There is no danger of any one losing money by purchasing real estate here. As time goes on, however, it will take more money to buy it, and those who are carrying the value of a Reno lot in their pockets to-day, waiting for a spread-eagle move, will do well to invest it and thereby help the move along.

Arbor Day Information Wanted.

That the Government is taking deep interest in the observance of Arbor Day throughout the Union is evident from the following that comes to the GAZETTE from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., under date of May 14. It is hoped that those who have the desired information will respond, as the data will be of great assistance to those devoted to solving the forestry problem.

The Forestry Division of the Department of Agriculture in Washington desires to be informed about the interest and success with which Arbor Day has been observed this year in your State. Will you kindly give prominent notice of the request in your paper, and thus aid the Division in forming an estimate of the effect which this institution may be expected to have in turning the attention of the people to the forestry problem. The Division will be gratified if some one in each town will send an account of the manner in which the day was observed, the number and kinds of trees planted, and any other facts of interest in connection with the celebration. Address, "Forestry Division, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C." Please note also the enclosed circular.

A Great Point.

At the meeting at Armory Hall on Thursday evening Col. Waring made a point which is of the first importance to this valley. He was asked what the effect of sewerage Reno would be on the river. He said it would never be noticed at all, and any one living a few rods even below the mouth of a sewer would not know that there was anything dumped in. In such a volume of water, even at low tide, with the rapid fall and the constant contact with granite boulders, no impurity can be carried far. The truth is the sewage would be invaluable to any ranch on the meadows. It would never be in the least offensive if it could be distributed in pipes over a few acres of ground. Col. Waring calculated that ten acres of cultivated ground would absorb every atom of it, and it is well known that dry earth is the great purifier of foul air, bad water, and will absorb and chemically change large quantities of degrading animal or vegetable matter. The value of sewage as a fertilizer is being recognized everywhere, and it is being saved in many places.

Piles Can be Cured.

WESTFIELD, N. Y., May 18, 1885.

For 32 years I suffered from piles, both internal and external, with all their attendant agonies, and like many another suffered from hemorrhoids. All those 32 years I had to cramp myself to pay doctors and druggists for stuff that was doing me little or no good. Finally I was urged by one who had had the same complaint, but had been cured by Brandreth's Pills, to try his cure. I did so, and began to improve, and for the past two years I have had no inconvenience from that terrible ailment.

Resolutions of Respect.

At the last meeting of the W. C. T. U. the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Ruler of the Universe to remove one of our members, Mrs. A. B. Palmer, which act of Providence has bereft our society of an esteemed friend and her home of an affectionate wife and fond mother; and

WHEREAS, She has endeared herself to the members of the W. C. T. U. by her sterling qualities as a steadfast friend, be it therefore

Resolved, That by her death this society has lost a worthy and esteemed member.

Resolved, That while we bow with reverence to the Great Ruler above, and drop the tear of sympathy with those who are so deeply afflicted by her loss, we will join with them and ever cherish her memory.

Resolved, That this Union extend to him who has been the partner of her joys and sorrows, her hopes and fears, its sincere and heartfelt sympathy, and to their children its love and best wishes for their future welfare.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon our minutes and sent to the family of our deceased friend.

A CHILD'S SKIN.

Ears and Scalp covered with Eczematous Scabs and Sores Cured by Cuticura.

MY LITTLE SON, AGED EIGHT years, has been afflicted with Eczema of the scalp, and at times a great portion of the body ever since he was two years old. It began in his ears and extended to his scalp which became covered with scabs and sores, and from which a sticky fluid poured out, causing intense itching and distress, and leaving his hair matted and lifeless. Underneath these scabs the skin was raw, like a piece of beefsteak. Gradually the hair came out and was destroyed, until but a small patch was left at the back of the head. My friends in Peabody know how my little boy has suffered. At night he would scratch his head until his pillow was covered with blood. I used to tie his hands behind him, and in many ways tried to prevent his scratching; but it was no use, he would scratch. I took him to the hospital and to the best physicians in Peabody without success. About this time some friends who had been cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES prevailed upon me to try them. I began to use them on the 15th of January last. In seven months every particle of the disease was removed. Not a spot or scab remains on his scalp to tell the story of his suffering. His hair has returned, and is thick and strong, and his scalp as sweet and clean as any child's in the world. I can not say enough to express my gratitude for this wonderful cure by the CUTICURA REMEDIES and wish all similarly afflicted to know that my statement is true and without exaggeration.

CHARLES MCKAY, Peabody, Mass., Oct. 6, 1885.

I have seen Mr. McKay's boy when badly afflicted with Eczema. He was a pitiful sight to look at. I know that he has tried our best physicians, and did all a father could do for a suffering child, but availed nothing. I know that the statements he has made you as regards the curing of his boy by your CUTICURA REMEDIES are true in every particular.
